

Nova Door Entry Receiver Operating Instructions

Once the relevant button on the entrance panel has been pressed, the Nova receiver will give an audible call tone.

For audio communication press the activation button

The receiver is equipped with the following controls:

*For some versions of this receiver the audio button must be pressed to talk and released to listen – if unsure if this is relevant to your receiver please check with your installation provider.